

Curriculum Map - Early Years

Spring Term 2024 - Incredible Inventions

Personal, Social & Emotional Development.

Self regulation

Select and use resources from construction kits that will help them create their own invention.

Managing self

To understand how rules keep us and the people around us safe.

Encouraging increasing independence to manage personal needs.

Building relationships

Team building and problem solving activities in PE.

Communication and Language

Listening, attention and understanding

Story time and circle time—practising listening skills and turn taking in back-and-forth conversations.

Speaking

Daily 'Time to Talk' Sessions.

Learn and use new vocabulary connected to stories and activities in class.

Physical Development

Gross motor skills

Football Sessions.

Team building/problem solving.

Dance

Big Block construction tasks.

Fine motor skills

Mark making to continue to develop the tripod grip.

Junk modelling—Cutting, painting and sticking

Literacy

Little Wandle Letters and Sounds Revised

Comprehension

Comprehension group reading session 3x weekly.

Word reading

Reception Phonics: Phase 2 revisit

Nursery: Rhyme Time, sound of the week

Writing

Rainbow letters

Mathematics

White Rose Small Step for Learning

Reception:

Alive in 5

Mass and Capacity

Growing 6,7,8

Length height and time

Building 9 and 10

3D Shapes

Nursery:

Begin to order number names

I see 1, 2,3

Explore and build with shapes and objects

Join in with repeats

Explore position and space

Understanding the World

Past and present

Inventions—How people and events from the past have shaped the way we live now.

People, culture and communities

RE—What do Jews remember on Shabbat?

The natural world

Seasons—Exploring The Common during Adventure Learning, observing changes through the season.

Expressive Arts and Design

Creating with materials

Use a range of tools and materials to create their own inventions in the junk modelling area and construction area

Being imaginative and expressive

Learning song for the Spring Concert.

Exploring body percussion