

Curriculum Map - Nursery

Summer Term 2024 - Journeys

Personal, Social & Emotional Development.

Self regulation

Talking about behaviour and feelings during circle time
Children's own challenges and problem solving during play.

Managing self

Join in with class routines e.g. transitions, story time, singing. Healthy eating and hygiene
Adventure learning: challenge and resilience

Building relationships

Cooking together and sharing food

Communication and Language ✨

Listening, attention and understanding

Phonics phase 1
Group story time
Sharing home school diaries
Talking together about class activities, sharing ideas

Speaking

Speaking in a small group about stories, home school diaries. Beginning to ask questions of others and answering questions. Talking about past, present, future events.

Physical Development

Gross motor skills

Walks in the village: negotiating slopes and uneven ground. Class big blocks: moving competently and safely. Balance bikes, hoops, balls.

Fine motor skills

Dressing up area: becoming more independent to put on and take off costumes
Cutting and sticking
Clay, pens, pencils, tweezers, pom poms, pipettes

Literacy

Comprehension

Stories: You Can't Take an Elephant on a Bus, We're Going on a Bear Hunt ✨

Word reading

Daily phonics: Voice sounds.

Writing

Recognising their name.

Mathematics

Number

Counting objects/numbers to 5 then 10

Exploring capacity, volume, position and direction

Numerical patterns

Making patterns; counting steps, claps, hops; one-to-one correspondence

Understanding the World ✨

Past and present

Transport

People, culture and communities

Where food comes from Christianity and Islam

The natural world

Plants
Seasons

Expressive Arts and Design

Creating with materials

Explore and use natural materials to create their own compositions and art connected to plants ✨

Being imaginative and expressive

Express own ideas through variety of media including visual art, dressing up, puppet theatre, drama, role play, story telling, musical instruments, singing and dancing.
Create own narratives and develop by combining media