

Curriculum Map - Reception

Summer Term 2024 - Summer

Personal, Social & Emotional Development.

Self regulation

Talking about behaviour and feelings during circle time.

Managing self

Healthy eating and hygiene

Adventure learning: challenge and resilience

Building relationships

Share food together.

Parachute and singing games

Communication and Language ✨

Listening, attention and understanding

Group/class discussions during carpet time

Story time: listening and discussing characters, setting and plot.

Speaking

Group/class discussions during carpet time and circle time. Sharing news from home with group/class.

Physical Development

Gross motor skills

Striking and Fielding

Football

Balance bikes

Large blocks

Garden equipment

Adventure learning: walking in the village and negotiating uneven ground and slopes at the Common

Fine motor skills

Use a wide range of equipment: scissors, paint, clay, pens, pencils, pastels, chalk, knives and forks. Food preparation. Know how to use tools safely.

Literacy

Comprehension

Stories: You Can't Take an Elephant on a Bus, Little People BIG DREAMS - Amelia Earhart, We're Going on a Bear Hunt ✨

Non fiction books about plants

Word reading

Daily phonics phase 4 (Letters and Sounds)

Home school reading books and one-to-one reading in school

Writing

Simple sentence writing

Mathematics

Number

Subitising; number bonds to 10; doubles and halves

Capacity and volume

Position and direction

Understanding numbers from 10 to 20, understanding the structure of 10 and more.

Use mathematical vocabulary such as more than and less than.

Expressive Arts and Design

Creating with materials

Explore and use natural materials to create their own compositions and art connected with plants ✨

Study and discuss Van Gogh's work

Being imaginative and expressive

Express own ideas through variety of media including visual art, dressing up, puppet theatre, drama, role play, story telling, musical instruments, singing and dancing.

Create own narratives collaboratively and develop by combining media.

Understanding the World ✨

People, culture and communities where our food comes from.

World religions : Christianity and Islam

The natural world

Plants

Seasons

Past and Present

Transport